

Oak Class Autumn 2 Homework grid

Children are encouraged to choose at least 2 of the activities from the grid to complete this half term.

Dojos will be awarded for all homework completed.

This homework should be brought into school by Wednesday 17th December.

Weekly spellings and times tables are set on Ed Shed and daily reading, at home, is also encouraged.

Imagine you are in charge of the country and write a set of laws. Include what the punishments would be for breaking the laws	Research historical forms of punishment and make a model of your favourite.	Make a timeline of punishments throughout the ages.	Research and present information about how people are punished today. Do you agree with all our current punishments?
Research fingerprints. Are they all the same? What do they look like? Present your work in a way of your choice	Do you think we should or shouldn't have the death penalty as a form of punishment? A write an explanation and explain your answer in as much detail as possible		Who was Dick Turpin? Create a piece of artwork all about him
What does the legend of Robin Hood tell us about medieval justice? Present your research in a way of your choice	Make drawings of different forms of historical punishments – make sure they are detailed	Create your own dictionary with words related to crime to punishment and their definitions	Who was Sir Robert Peel and what is he known for? Present your research in a creative way